SPRING FESTIVAL SUNDAY NIGHT WAS EVENTFUL OCCASION

Miss Vera Banderet, Queen, Mr. Osmond Blaize Reign As Queen and King.

An eventful and memorable event was the 37 annual Spring festival and celebration at St. Joseph's Academy, Sunday night April 25th.

Both the auditorium and stage especially were beautifully decorated largely with natural flowers.

The Spring Festival this year took place of the annual May Festival, and was even more appealing than former years. There was youth in its zenith of appeal, girls and children in rare loveliness of charm and dress. The young men who acted as dukes, were stalwart and handsome in their light spring suits.

Miss Vera Banderet, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Banderet, made an ideal queen and looked charming in her attractive and beautiful gown. Mr. Osmond Blaize, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Blaize, was king. Miss Elsie Mae Capdepon was maid of honor.

In addition to the King and Queen the court consisted of twenty-two maids and dukes, each couple escorted by a little flower girl and boy companion, whose cuteness attracted the attention of all.

The setting for the occasion was perfect and the varied-colored evening gowns of the maids and little flower girls, carried the very freshness of Spring and made a beautiful and spectacular scene.

A large crowd filled the spacious gymnasium. All in attendance were high in their praises of the event.

FORTIER NOSES OUT STANISLAUS

In Spring Football Game Here Saturday Night—Score 18-13.

A big and experienced Fortier team capitalized on breaks to nose out a smaller but faster Rockachaw squad, 18-13 in the spring training football game held at the St. Stanislaus stadium Saturday night of last week.

Fortier scored first when a defensive halfback intercepted Folse's pass on the former's five yard line and raced the length of the field untouched to score. On the play before Folse had taken a lateral from Glover and behind beautiful blocking scamped down the field from his own eighteen yard line to the Fortier fifteen.

The Rocks received the kickoff and began a drive which lasted until they reached the Fortier thirty-five yard stripe and there they lost the ball on a fumble. Fortier again took the ball but lost it on downs. The remainder of the quarter was uneventful and it was only in the second quarter that the fireworks began again.

Prevost, Fortier's right half capped a forty yard drive to the S. S. C. eight yard line to go over for a touchdown on a slant off right tackle. The extra point was missed, the score standing at 12-0. Then it was the Rocks' turn to score. After repeated long gains off sweeps and reverses, Roy Strong, shifty right end took the ball on an end-around and smashed twenty-five yards to six points. Monti's try for the extra point was blocked.

Then again the Rocks came back to score. Within three minutes of their first touchdown again reached the promised land. Driving relentlessly off tackle they marched forty-five yards to the Fortier ten where Folse on a spinner from a double-back formation twisted and squirmed over the line. Monti dropped back into kick formation but the ball was centered to Joe Glover, 165-pound fullback who bucked over standing up to make the score 13-12 with the Rocks on the long end.

The half ended with the Rocks holding the ball and the lead also. In the third quarter the Rocks began another march this time from their own thirty yard stripe to the Silver and Blue's twenty five. Here another costly fumble cost an almost certain touchdown.

The remainder of the third quarter was a see-saw affair. Then came the second hard break for the Rocks. A fumble resulting from a poorly worked double-reverse gave Fortier the ball on the Rocks' twenty yard line from where they carried it over to score.

The Rocks lead throughout with almost double the number of first downs scored by Fortier and also in total yardage gained.

Forest Fire Losses Slashed to Low Mark In March Stated

Forest fire losses in Mississippi were slashed to a new low in March, it was revealed at Jackson by A. K. Dexter, Chief of Forest Fire Control, State Forestry Commission.

In the seventeen counties under protection by the commission in cooperation with the federal government and local boards of supervisors only 24,500 acres were swept by fire in March, Dexter reported.

During the same month in 1936, a total of 127,591 acres of forest land were swept by destructive blazes.

State and federal officials obtained satisfaction from this sharp reduction. They point out the prospective development of the paper mill industry in the state emphasizes the need for continued intensive protection efforts.

Dexter said the fewest fires and smallest acreage burned occurred in Chickasaw county. Only 8 blazes were reported, and 148 acres affected.

It was not regarded as unusual that the greater number of fires and largest area burned was in the heavily wooded coastal counties of Hancock, Harrison and Jackson. Sharp reductions in fire loss was noted, however, in contrast with last year.

Humphreys county went without a single reported fire during March, a unique record.

DR. SHIPP ADDRESSES ROTARY

Tells About Work of Local Health Department—Carl Marshall To Be Next Speaker.

Dr. C. M. Shipp, county health officer was the guest speaker before the Rotary Club at the regular weekly luncheon-meeting at Hotel Weston Wednesday noon.

Dr. Shipp's main subject was on the observance of Child Health Day, May 1st. The day has been set aside as a special one by Governor Hugh White to be observed.

The doctor also spoke on the infant and adult death rate which he stated had decreased 50 per cent in the past ten years, since the establishment of a full time county health department in Hancock. The local health department in this county has been exceptionally active since its establishment, in helping to eliminate diphtheria and small pox. In 1924 Hancock county had 49 cases of small pox and during the past ten years no cases have been reported. Tuberculosis and hook worm have also "shown" decreases during this period.

Dr. Shipp is an engaging and interesting speaker and it was a real treat to have heard his talk. Senator Carl Marshall will address the Rotary Club next Wednesday, May 5th. His subject will be "International conditions. A large attendance is expected to hear this special speaker.

Chiang Kai Shek Gives $1,000 In Gold To Bishop's Crusade

Generalissimo Chiang Kai Shek, virtual dictator of China and the idol of 450,000,000 people, recently sent Bishop Arthur J. Moore a 3,500 yen, or $1,000 in gold, to the Bishop's Crusade. The General is a member of our Allen Memorial Church in Shanghai, as is also his wife, the former Mei-ling Soong. The conversion of General Chiang created a sensation throughout the world several years ago.

Before leaving China last winter, Bishop Moore wrote to General and Madam Chiang explaining the nature of the Bishop's Crusade, pointing out that our first missionaries went to China eighty-nine years ago and inquiring whether the General, who more than any other person knew what the missionaries meant to China, desired to have a part in the financial appeal. General Chiang was at that time with his army in Northwestern China.

Immediately on receipt of this letter, the General radioed Bishop Moore at sea his subscription of $1,000. Two days later occurred the much-publicized, but little understood, "kidnapping" of General Chiang.

Back of this gift is a romantic story of eighty-nine years of service. In 1849 Charles Taylor and Benjamin Jenkins landed in Shanghai. There was not a Methodist and scarcely a Christian in the vast Empire at that time. Those two men labored for three years before they made their first convert.

But only eighty-nine years later—only the space of one long lifetime—the head of the nation, Generalissimo of all the military forces, the leader and idol of one-fourth of all the people on earth, is a devoted Methodist who makes his financial pledge along with all other Methodists to a great missionary movement. What hath God wrought?

The last benefit event of the season will be presented for the St. Stanislaus College Bus Fund, Sunday, May 16 in the college gymnasium. This will be "Plantation Memories," a tuneful minstrel which will be given by a group of talented ladies from New Orleans under the auspices of the Mothers Club.

This presentation will assure a full evening's entertainment consisting of mirthful sallies and musical tunes. The minstrel cannot be classed entirely as an amateur product since those who compose it had some experience already in a number of appearances they have made in New Orleans.

The faculty and members of the Mothers Club cordially invite all the people of Bay St. Louis and vicinity to attend and have a good evening's fund. It will be a means also of materially increasing the bus fund, which has slowed down in receipts lately.

The curtain will rise promptly at eight o'clock on the evening of May 16. The minstrel is under the direction of Mrs. Paul Jacobs who has had considerable experience in the production of this kind of entertainment. So save the date. Your patronage will be appreciated.

Constructive School Problems Should Be Solved in Community

The following letter was sent out by State Superintendent of Education, J. S. Vandiver regarding educational conferences:

We wish to thank the local communities at the eight points where we have just held the most successful Educational Conferences for all local arrangements and for all publicity. We estimate that more than three thousand were in attendance at these eight conferences. These conferences should be productive of much good.

In order to have a constructive school system we must have the cooperation of the school trustees, P. T. A. workers, and patrons. The school problems cannot be solved in Washington nor in Jackson. They must be solved in the local communities.

We were especially delighted to have more than two hundred trustees meet with us in these conferences to study their duty and to familiarize themselves with the school problems. We hope to hold trustee meetings in many counties in May and June.

We are delighted with the genuine spirit of co-operation on the part of all school people. We invite the co-operation of all patrons and citizens so that we may get the very best results for our children in the public schools of Mississippi.

PEACE PROSPECTS BETTER.

THE situation in Europe seems to have improved somewhat in the past few weeks, with the general opinion being that war is not now as imminent as it seemed.

Apparently, the armament program of Great Britain is having an influence for peace even though it is hardly under way. The fact is, as we gather from European observers, that Germany is not yet ready for a general war. Russia prefers to carry out domestic policies, France plans to present offensive and the British want to get ready before a storm breaks.

The Spanish civil war continues but indications last week were that foreign intervention might become less important and that the factions may be allowed to fight it out. This means, on the face of the present situation, a victory for the government, which is a marked contrast to the outlook six weeks ago.

The word from Europe is that the nations do not want war—yet.

Thousands of cars were noted the past week end journeying to the Coast over the Short Cut to New Orleans. Summer visitors are arriving and the many beautiful homes in this section are showing signs of life once again after being closed during the winter months.

CHANGE THE TUNE.

THE United States Chamber of Commerce is meeting this week in Washington where it will undoubtedly present the views of many businessmen.

We are not advised as to the nature of the program arranged but it is safe to predict that the slogan of the businessmen's sessions will be nothing but a cry for less taxes for business. We admit there is something to be said about the danger of taxing the goose that lays the golden egg and the businessmen will more than likely proclaim it. They might acquire greater public support, however, if sometimes the tune was changed and the people of the country had an opportunity to hear of a business meeting devoted to the improvement of business methods, the discussion of business obligations and the duty of business generally to serve the public.

Advertising must be a good thing; there are so many successful business men who say so.

Bay St. Louis, whether you believe it or not, is just as good and no better than hundreds of other places in the United States. However, it is your home and you can make it what you want it to be.

SAFETY IN THE AIR.

JUST to give an idea of the safety of travel in the air, we call your attention to the fact that the Eastern Airlines have operated for six years and its planes have covered 141,794,894 passenger miles without the loss of the life of a single passenger. Two other airlines, operating planes more than 84 million miles in the past six years, have also managed to keep their record perfect.

Of course, this does not mean that you might not be killed in the first airplane ride you take on a passenger line, but it certainly indicates that travel by air is not only fast, but reasonably safe.

President Roosevelt asked $1,500,000,000, for relief, with no rise in taxes.

Polio, or infantile paralysis has made its appearance again in the State, according to statements given out by Dr. H. C. Ricks of the State Board of Health. One child has died and another is ill with the disease in Rankin county, both being pupils of the Pearl Consolidated School, and this school is now using the anti-polio nose sprays recommended by the Board of Health, which organization is exercising every precaution to prevent a spread of the trouble this year. Last year, Mississippi had some 125 cases with a number of deaths.

Doctors have traced a brain disease to bacteria in raw milk.

A very happy woman is Miss Eleanor McGuire, of Oxford. Miss McGuire, who claims she has been in active business longer than any other woman in the United States—a period of 72 years. Miss McGuire some time ago suffered a broken leg, and on the day the clips were removed she received a letter of sympathy from the First Lady of the Land, Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. Miss McGuire states that "I'll be back at the store soon," which shows conclusively that Miss McGuire has no intentions of retiring from the business world yet.

Mississippi soils, her climate, her labor conditions, her cheap available power, her forests and lands open for reforestation, and her resources generally, unfold the rarest opportunities for our people to prosper and be independent. We need more industries to manufacture Mississippi products into articles that may be sold in Mississippi, as well as in other states and countries, and we need improved marketing conditions, the creation of new markets for our products, and the training of our farmers in producing those commodities that may be manufactured and marketed at home.

EDUCATION FOR FAMILIES.

THE family is the source of life to modern society and thus it becomes important to Bay St. Louis and other places to uphold and strengthen the ties that lead to normal family development.

That serious discords exist in this modern era cannot be denied by any student of social problems. That the family is an outmoded institution is not to be believed but that it can be modernized in the light of present conditions, is certain.

Dr. Arthur J. Todd, of Northwestern University, touches the trouble spot, we think, when he says it is necessary for us to "rid ourselves of the old superstition or the ignorant belief that successful family life happened automatically" and "begin to educate ourselves for family life." If this is done, he thinks, that there will be an upward movement of family and social life.

To educate ourselves for family life it is essential that young men and young women, about to enter upon a life partnership, should know some of the essential obligations and functions of the family. They should be taught these things along with mathematics, history and other subjects and not be subjected to the dangers that lurk along the path of ignorance.

A sensible point, made by Dr. Todd, is that an essential to sound family life is "an income sufficient to provide not only for the bare necessities of life but a means of making life more worth while living." Bluntly, brothers and sisters, marriages may be made in Heaven but the couples have to live on earth.

HEART DISEASE A KILLER.

HEART disease is rapidly becoming the chief cause of death in the United States, being far ahead of cancer, the second on the list of diseases which kill the greatest number of people in the United States every year. Incidentally, of the ten leading causes of death in the country, only one, tuberculosis, has shown a steady decline during the past three years. Whether this is to be attributed to the steady campaign which is waged against the white plague, or not, we have no way of knowing but we suspect that there is some close connection.

Concerning heart disease, Dr. Harry L. Smith, of the Mayo Clinic, reports that coronary sclerosis is sometimes called the "disease of the intelligencia" because of the susceptibility of physicians, bankers, lawyers and clergymen. The characteristics of the disease include the hardening of the nerves, ligaments and blood vessels around the heart and its incidence is highest among those who do mental work and lowest among those who do manual labor.

The Echo naturally hesitates to attempt any conclusion from these observations but, apparently, the disease attacks individuals who are prone to forget the importance of physical exercise while consuming their energies in the anxiety of mental worries. It would appear that, somewhere along the line of popular education in this country, the physical nature of man has been neglected. If this is true, and we believe that it is, we might save the lives of future professional men by stressing athletic interests during childhood, with the hope that when they grow up, the individuals will have sense enough to continue what has been wisely begun.

SPRING FOR CLEANING UP.

ANNUAL Spring cleaning is a process that most housewives thoroughly understand and the practice survives nearly everywhere because of the obvious advantages obtained by giving the domicile of the family a thorough renovating.

Probably, drawing a lesson from the housewife, many towns and cities have established a similar custom and once a year, usually in the Spring, launch a community drive for the same essential purpose. The only difference is that where the housewife takes care of her own home the community seeks to enlist cooperative action of all citizens in the work of cleaning up the premises that make up the unit.

Bay St. Louis has had such drives before, under various names, such as "Clean-Up Week," "Paint Up Week," "Beautification Week," etc. We are not interested in the names but the ideas are sound and can be practiced by the residents of this city with much profit to all concerned.

Every citizen should be a committee of one to improve the appearance of his or her property. The combined action of all of us will have a notable influence upon the impression that our home town will make upon those who come here. More important, it will have a good effect upon those of us who live here.

THE 53 LAWYERS WERE WRONG.

THOSE of our readers who have not forgotten the organization known as the Liberty League may also remember that, in 1935, it sponsored the opinion of a group of fifty-three lawyers who pronounced the Wagner Labor Act unconstitutional from start to finish.

The authority of these attorneys seemed very impressive when one observed the careers credited to them and the distinguished clients they served. At the time, there was some thought that the barristers were working ahead of the Supreme Court and exhibiting somewhat questionable ethics. The American Bar Association, as we recall, gave its approval to the ethics involved and the only question left was whether the eminent attorneys knew anything about the law they were discussing.

This question was answered a few weeks ago when the United States Supreme Court decided that the Wagner Act was constitutional in every respect.

ECONOMY MOVE WELCOMED.

INDICATIONS that the President and important leaders in Congress have come to the conclusion that the government's financial house must be put in order make good reading for most Americans.

The fact that the government has operated at a deficit for nearly eight years and that an end to spending more than comes about some day leads to the conclusion that a start might as well be made. Business is improving and the condition of the nation has improved.

That beneficiaries of the spending policies will now be to be expected but, just because they like to get the money, is not a sufficient reason for the government to go into bankruptcy.

WHAT THE PRESS IS SAYING OF MEN AND MATTERS IN EDITORIAL EXPRESSION

COAST DIVERS ARE WARNED AS TO UNDERWATER DANGERS.

(Daily Clarion-Ledger)
THE Gulfport Herald with the approaching of the swimming season on the Gulf Coast, gives warning to all those who dive from piers and boats in waters with which they are not familiar.

A number of fine Jackson boys have lost their lives in this way. The coast each summer becomes more popular as a resort for Mississippians. This season will probably break the record. Therefore we are passing on this editorial from the Herald, captioned, "Divers, Beware."

"Mississippi coast citizens living or passing along the road to New Orleans think that they can expect large crowds of people on the coast this summer, on the Fourth of July, at the weekends and on occasion. Therefore we come with our annual warning to strangers to these waters against diving off of small private wharves on the supposition that because the sea is so big it also is so deep every inch of it. Next to the shore it is not deep, but a safe and pleasant body to wade in and pleasant and refreshing to swim in if one does not stay in too long, and especially if bathers go in early in the morning and in the cool evening when the sun has 'nigh wore hisse'f out' trying to settle over behind the Bay of St. Louis or somewhere."

"It also is a good place to dive in; but divers must not dive in unknown places. Next to the wharves frequently one may dive upon an old wharf post full of barnacles and trouble and hospital aid. And waders should not just wade anywhere it looks wet. Dredges have made holes and channels within

CHILD WELFARE.

(Jackson (Miss.) Daily News)

THE state health board has issued an admirably prepared program to be carried out in Mississippi. It embodies a great wealth of material and also some suggestions for the proper care of children, and constitutes a manual for use by those interested in this phase of health work.

May the first—May Day—is now designated by act of Congress as Child Health Day and a nation-wide movement is under way to promote the health and general physical welfare of all little folks.

Thoughtful men and women everywhere should join the crusade. After all is said and done, our children form the nation's greatest asset. It is trite but true to add that the boys and girls of today will be the men and women of tomorrow and they will be no better than we of this generation give them opportunity to be.

The usual wading area and if one steps unexpectedly into one of them—there may be tragedy which would sadden this community and take grief into the home.

"It is strange that some people feel that when they have shed their normal or customary clothes and feel their strength and wish to try their skill in swimming or diving, any place with water looks good to them. And the water is in fact good; but there might be a sunken boat or log, or an old broken wharf post, or an anchor; so, it is better to inquire and investigate and explore. When one has learned his locality he may go ahead and have a good time, for that is what citizens of the Mississippi Coast wish their visitors to do."

"MAID OF SALEM" BEAUTIFUL STORY OF COLONIAL DAYS

The love story of a beautiful Puritan maiden and a dashing Virginia cavalier, laid against one of the most amazing periods in American history, brings Claude Colbert and Fred MacMurray to the A. & C. Theater, Sunday and Monday nights, in "Maid of Salem," a lavish and beautiful production produced and directed by Frank Lloyd.

The famous witchcraft hysteria of 1692, which began in Salem and spread to the other colonies, forms the background of "Maid of Salem." Miss Colbert, an orphan in old Salem, incurs the animosity of the stern townsfolk by her gaiety. She meets and falls in love with MacMurray, a fugitive cavalier from Virginia, who is hiding in the home of his uncle. Unknown to both, she is seen with him.

Shortly after he returns to Virginia the witchcraft hysteria sweeps the colony. Miss Colbert is caught in its mad rush and condemned to die on the testimony of hysterical women and precocious youngsters. She is saved only by the timely arrival of MacMurray, who proves that he is not the devil at all but a very handsome young man. His appearance—in the flesh—awakens the populace to their folly.

The elaborate cast includes Harvey Stephens, Louise Dresser, Bennie Bertlett, Gale Sondergaard, E. E. Chivers, Bonita Granville, Virginia Weidler, Rosita Butler, Beulah Bonidin, Donald Meek.

WITH THE FISHERMEN.

By Camcha Ketchum.

A TRIP to various streams over the past week end reveals that the Jordan river which has been excellent for the past two weeks for fishing turned bad over night after heavy rains. The water is muddy and black. Pearl river is clearing rapidly and in a short time, probably this week end will be just right. The water in the Bay has again been stirred up by the prevailing East winds of the past few days and is muddy. The same thing goes for Bayou DeLisle and Wolfe river.

The most distinguished fisherman in the United States visited Bay St. Louis for six minutes Thursday. It was President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He will spend a couple of weeks on vacation fishing on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

Soft shell crabbing has been delayed again by the change in the water, but several nice catches have been reported.

Luther Ansley and sons enjoyed a fishing trip over the week end at Mulatto Bayou and caught a few perch.

John Bryan, Sr., made a catch of eight nice size green trout last Saturday in the Jordan River section.

Bob Genin and Dec Elliott caught a few fish Sunday at the Gravel Pit near Gainesville. They were not striking so hot.

Prof. Bish Clark tried 'em again the past week end, but has not reported his luck.

An enjoyable fishing trip but with little success was that made by Monsignor Prendergast, Rev. Father A. J. Gmelch and Alden Mauffray last week in front of the Bay. The party trolled for speckles. Engine trouble was blamed for not getting any fish.

M. Philbert an expert at catching soft shell crabs reported a nice catch the later part of last week.

Another old timer, Tony Benvenuti, has been out and states that the crabs are not giving just yet. He caught about two dozen one night last week.

Sy Engman says he has about given up fishing, but a little coaxing would bring him out. Sy says the old fly rod is the thing.

Visitors as well as home people would enjoy an all-day picnic spot at the old picnic grounds at Logtown on the Old Spanish Trail. This spot is located about 19 miles from Bay St. Louis on Pearl River.

The grounds are well shaded, grass covered and near an artesian well. Fishing in the river can't be beat. Bouga Homa Bayou is near the spot and within a short distance up the river is Bull Froy Bayou and Waiste House, where when the water is good, fishing is excellent. Most any kind of fishing may be done. Ask anyone how to find this spot. You'll never regret visiting it.

A CORRECTION

In these columns last week it was reported that the meeting of the Missionary Society of April 15th, was held at the home of Mrs. Thompson. This was in error as the meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. P. Smith, with Mrs. Smith and others as hostesses.

This information was handed in wrong and The Echo is glad to make this correction.

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

MOST of us know our cooking has gotten in a rut, but we soothe our conscience by thinking that experiments are costly, take too much time and the family probably wouldn't like it anyway. So we keep right on scrambling eggs, frying steak and baking puddings. A simple, yet different menu, perfectly prepared and charmingly served will take the monotony out of cooking and will make the family feel proud of its housekeeper.

Chipped Beef and Olive Omelet

Use one egg for each person served, and one tablespoon of hot water for each egg. Separate yolks and whites. Season the yolks with salt and with either pepper or nutmeg, according to taste; add water and beat well. Beat the whites until stiff and fold in the yolks. Pour gently into a well greased pan and cook slowly until the underside is a delicate brown, then place the pan in the oven, keeping the temperature between 325 degrees and 350 degrees. When the omelet responds to the touch it is done. Make 2 cuts part of the way down into the omelet at right angles to the handle of the pan, dividing it about in thirds. Then tip the pan, slide a spatula under the omelet and fold it over as you slip it out of the pan onto a platter.

Tear chipped beef into small pieces, heat thoroughly in milk; use a double boiler and strain. Spread the beef between omelet folds and dot the beef generously with thin slices of stuffed olives.

Meat Rolls

Sift 2 cups of flour into a large bowl, with 3 teaspoons of baking powder and 1-2 teaspoon salt. Cut in 1-2 cup of shortening until the mixture is full of lumps about the size of small marbles. Add enough milk to make a light dough, that can be rolled very lightly on a board. Roll to 1-4 inch thickness and cut round of 2 inches in diameter. In the center of each round put a heaping teaspoon of meat filling. Fold rounds in half, pinching the edges together, place folded edge down in a greased baking sheet. Brush the rolls with egg yolk and little water beaten together. Bake in an oven 450 to 475 degrees about 10 minutes.

Meat Filling

Put through the meat grinder 1-2 pound of cooked beef, chicken liver, or ham—a mixture of these—with 1 bay leaf, 1 small chopped onion, a teaspoon of parsley and a teaspoon of chopped cucumber pickle, with salt and pepper to taste. Brown this mixture in a little fat and blend with enough sour cream to make a paste. One heaping teaspoon of this peppery filling is enough for each roll.

Browned Rice

Cut 6 slices of bacon into narrow pieces, put into a skillet with two chopped onions and cook until the onions are tender and well browned; add 1 1/2 cup of chopped boiled ham, 1/4 cup of grated cheese, 1/4 cup of diced chicken or veal and two cups of cooked rice. Mix together lightly and turn into a hot greased omelet pan. Heat and brown carefully on both sides over low heat. Turn out upon a platter. Serve with creamed carrots and peas.

Maple Syrup Muffins

Mix 1/2 cup of milk with 1/4 cup of maple syrup, and into this mix 2 cups of flour that have been sifted with 4 teaspoons of salt. Rub 1/4 cup of butter into the mixture with the fingers. Add 1 beaten egg. Work all into a dough which will be very soft. Bake in greased muffin pans.

Beet Ring Mold

4 lbs. beet greens
8 small white onions
2 teaspoons salt
Pepper
4 tablespoons fat
One 13-4 lb. canned tongue
2 tablespoons chopped pimientos.
Prepare and cook the beet greens and onions separately until tender. Drain well, then add salt, pepper and fat to the beet greens, with additional seasoning if necessary. Arrange the hot greens in a buttered ring mold on a hot platter and fill the center with the tongue which has been diced and mixed with the white sauce, onions and pimiento.

Eat Vegetables Every Day Is the Advice of Extension Nutritionist

State College, Miss.—With gardens now furnishing a variety of greens for the family table, Miss Mary Haddon, extension nutritionist, says both farm and city people should "eat vegetables every day."

"Home grown vegetables are the cheapest food that can be supplied and contain substances needed to build bodies and keep them healthy," the nutritionist says. "Vegetables," Miss Haddon reminds us, "contain the same substances bought from the drug store, the doctor, and grocer."

Vegetables contain essential minerals such as iron, lime, phosphorus and iodine which make strong bones and teeth and red blood and keep the heart and other vital organs in good working order.

They provide vitamins which make the body grow, keep it healthy and prevent disease. Vegetables contain lots of woody fiber, which helps to keep the digestive tract active and clean.

Miss Haddon says three classes of vegetables should be included in the well planned diet. Leafy and watery vegetables which include all kinds of greens, onion tops, string beans, okra, squash eggplant and tomatoes.

Roots and tubers such as turnips, rutabagas, carrots, beets and yellow potatoes, have an important place. Seeds round out the list. These include peas, butter beans, lima beans, soybeans and yellow corn.

She recommends one raw (salad) vegetable a day such as tomatoes, young onions, lettuce, mustard, carrots and beets; and two cooked vegetables a day including any of the varieties listed and either sweet or Irish potatoes in addition.

SCREEN ENAMEL

It's a wonder how just one hole in a screen attracts all manner of insects. But don't blame the screen. It's a rust that breaks the screen wires, makes screen holes. Just one coat of this screen enamel protects against rust. What's more, it's easy to apply, won't clog the mesh, makes screens bright and attractive, and it prevents rain from washing copper stains onto your house. One quart will cover the screens of an average 8-room home.

Roots and tubers such as turnips, rutabagas, carrots, beets and yellow potatoes, have an important place. Seeds round out the list. These include peas, butter beans, lima beans, soybeans and yellow corn.

Costless Campaign

CURBS CLOTHES MOTH

A household safety-first campaign against the clothes moth need not be expensive to be successful, according to Miss Ouida Midkiff, extension specialist in clothing.

She says the simple, inexpensive methods of thorough cleaning and careful packing are still among the best for protecting winter clothes and blankets. Dry cleaning, washing in soap and water, thorough brushing, airing, and sunning are effective and cheap ways of destroying moths.

And firm, unbroken paper with edges tightly sealed will prevent moths from reaching these cleaned garments while they are stored for the summer.

Naphthalene, paradichlorobenzene and gum camphor in the form of familiar moth balls or flakes will give added protection to stored articles by evaporating into fumes which penetrate fabrics and kill any moths in them. But such fumes must be concentrated to be effective and should be used at the rate of one pound for each 100 cubic feet of enclosed space. The mere odor will not spoil the moth's appetite.

Moths eat heartily in an atmosphere scented with cedar, dried lavender, tobacco, tar, pine oil, or even insect sprays or camphor in experiments of entomologists in the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The entomologists also found that the odor of tar or cedar oil in paper clothes-bags has no deterring effect on moths.
